

Overview

Overview / Product overview / System objects / Log

Log

You can use the system log to view messages and other information about the primary RICOH ProcessDirector system.

The system log page lets you specify what type of information you want to look at (All log entries, Error messages, Messages, Property Changes, or State changes) and the time frame that you are interested in (in hours or days).

Parent topic: System objects