Overview

Time zones

The service policy specifies the time zone where jobs are printed. If jobs are printed in more than one time zone, you must create a service policy for each time zone.

For example, if jobs are printed in the US/Eastern time zone and the US/Mountain time zone, you must create two service policies, one for each time zone. These service policies can be exactly the same except for the name of the service policy and the time zone.

Parent topic: Service policies