Overview

Language packs

Language packs include translations for the user interface and help system. Each language pack includes the translated files for one language.

Supported languages are:

- Brazilian Portuguese
- French
- German
- Italian
- Japanese
- Spanish

You can install as many language packs as needed to support your staff. After you install one or more language packs, you control the language used in the application by changing the preferred language setting in your web browser.

Parent topic: No-charge product enhancement features